Give Them A Chance

This is Handicap Week. Throughout the nation there are thousands of handicapped persons ready to take their places in the ranks of the useful workers, and more thousands will be joining them each year.

The wonderful work to the Federal and State agencies and the extensive program of the Veterans' Administration branch of the government, has added these thousands to the rank and file of available workers.

A recent poll shows that 72.6 per cent of these impaired workers on the same jobs. Ranging from laborers to the highly skilled mechanics, these men and women are now ready to go to work.

Are you an employer? If so, can you find a place for one or more of these worthy men and women in your work? Don't let them down.

By giving them a break, you'll not only give these self-respecting persons a chance to earn their daily bread, you'll boost your own morale sky-high at the same time.

They're counting on you. Don't fail them!

About Town With Muriel

BY MURIEL MacDONALD MURPHY

CANDLELIGHT AND FLOWERS add to the lovely evening nuptials when Miss Elizabeth Cormie Cooper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cooper, Jr., of 75 Broadway, exchanged wedding vows with Mr. Richard Lawrence Haas of West Medford, in the Pleasant St. Congregational Church. The Rev. David Colwell officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father the attractive bride wore a gown of white slipper satin fashioned with inserts of fine lace at the yoke and in the skirt. She wore an heirloom veil of white silk net and carried a bouquet of white roses.

In Nile green taffeta, Miss Nancy Lawson of Arlington, served as maid of honor for Miss Cooper. As bridesmaids, wearing taffeta gowns of soft rose hue, were; Miss Carol Parker of Melrose, Miss Nicollo f Brighton, Miss Joan Kelleher of Arlington and Miss Doris LaFrance of Wayland. All bridal attendants carried mixed bouquets of fall flowers.

Little Janet MacKenzie of Baltimore and Elaine Collins of Waltham made pretty flower girls in their yellow taffeta frocks.

Mr. John B. Hawes came from Philadelphia to perform best man duties for his brother. The ushers were: Mr. Edward Lawless, Mr. Robert McLaughlin, and Mr. Henry Hughes of Medford and Mr. Robert Haselton of Winthrop.

Following the nuptials, a reception was held in the church vestry.

After their wedding trip to Maine, Mr. and Mrs. Hawes will live in North Reading.

WEARING A GOWN OF IVORY SATIN, her veil of silk illusion caught to a wreath of orange blossoms, Miss Louise Alice McKenna, daughter of Mrs. Louis F. McKenna of Arlington became the bride, recently, of Mr. Louis Safford Howland, son of Mrs. Louis S. Howland of Baintree. The ceremony wasper formed in St. Agnes Church by the Rev. John Keohane.

Miss Anne Elizabeth Dolan of Winchester was maid of honor and attendant for Miss McKenna and Mr. Robert J. Viano of Belmont was best man for Mr. Howland.

Arlington Man Honored With Bronze Star Medal

On behalf of General Clifton Cates, Commandant of the U. S. Marines Corps, the Directors, First Marine Corps Reserve District, Colonel G. O. Van Orden recently presented a permanent citation for the Bronze Star Medal to Major Robert F. O'Brien, United States Marine Corps Reserve, of 55 Hutchinson Road, Arlington.

The permanent citation is signed by John L. Sullivan, Secretary of the Navy, for the President of the United States and reads as follows:

"For heroic achievement as Commanding Officer of Company L, Third Battalion, Second Marines, Second Marine Division, in action against enemy Japanese forces on Tinian Marianas Islands, 31 July 1944. While leading his assault company in an attack against strong hostile resistance, Captain O'Brien worked his way forward of the front lines and, although subjected to intense enemy machine-gun and mortar fire, made a skilled reconnaissance for his company's advance. Ordering tanks into the area for supporting fire, he personally led them through the hostile barrage to positions from which they could fire on the enemy, thereby neutralizing obstructions and contributing materially to the continued advance of his company. His courage and devotion to duty were in keeping with the highest traditions of the United States Naval Service."

Major O'Brien who was just recently advanced to his present rank, served with the famed First and Second Marine Divisions during World War II and was awarded the Silver Star Medal for heroic actions at Tarawa and the Bronze Star Medal at Saipan. His decorations also include the Presidential Unit Citation with two stars and the American and Asiatic-Pacific Theatre ribbons.

Now Is The Hour

Now is the hour to get that approved windshield sticker. es, it's compulsory for all Massachusetts vehicles to be in-cted for equipment defects during the month of October.

Its also good business and pure common sense on the part of every driver to make sure that his brakes, lights, horn, steering gear and windshield wipers are in the pink of condition.

Remember, there are over forty-one million cars on the nation's highway, this fall.

Don't wait until the last minute! Get that sticker now! Motorists who wait until the last week and the last day will find inspection stations jammed, mechanics and inspectors over-worked and everyone short-tempered.

Do your part, and do it NOW!

JOSEPH S. VAHEY TO SPEAK OCT. 11

On Monday evening, October 11, Joseph S. Vahey, representing the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United State, will speak over Station WMEX on the purposes and meaning of United Nations Day, which will be observed on Sunday, October 24. Secretary of State, George Marshall, has appointed a National Citizen's Committee to promote appropriate Oct. 24 program throughout the nation. Mr. Vahey is the Past Commander Arlington Post 1775 VFW.

I Wonder ?

I WONDER what if anything, is being done in the way of housing arrangements for the three hundred and sixty-four veterans of World War II, who registered last June for the low-rent housing plan here in Arlington? We note that two thousand displaced persons, according to the newspapers, are expected to arrive in Boston during October.

I WONDER who is responsible for putting sugar in the gas tanks of cars parked along Winter street? A pretty poor idea of a joke, and a pretty expensive one for the unlucky car owners. Police take note.

I WONDER how it happened that the name of the VFW Auxiliary, Post 1775, did not appear in the list for a $25. donation which they recently made to the Monica fund?

I WONDER how many new members are being added to the VFW Auxiliary First 1775 membership drive, now in progress?

I WONDER when the popular Tom Casazza will get a place for his lovely new bride and himself? All suggestions will be appreciated. Tom is a lifelong resident of this town.

I WONDER who is the cute one serving coffee at the Donut Shop in the Centre? We hear she's from Texas.

I WONDER if you have noticed more "for Rent" signs on store fronts lately?

I WONDER if the youth of America wasn't well represented Sunday in the Catholic Youth Parade in Boston?

I WONDER what group of local business men will commute via air to see the games at Cleveland-go and come each day 2 1/2 hours each way?

I WONDER who is the petite blonde seen holding hands with an old flame at a local flicker house? Has the fire rekindled?

I WONDER if you know how delicious the coffee is at the Bright Spot Restaurant at the Heights?

Red Cross Urges Woman To Enrol As Nurses' Aides

Do you have a knack in the sickroom that your family appreciates? Have you an interest in nursing that remains unfulfilled?

Arlington women who answer "yes" to either of these questions are the people who can become valued volunteer Nurse's Aides, today declared Miss Dorothy Bartol, chairman of the Nurse's Aide Service of the Boston Metropolitan Chapter of the Red Cross.

"Doctors appreciate the presence of the woman with a special aptitude for handling the ill or for an interest in the welfare of the sick person," she said. "They know that trained volunteer Nurse's Aides have been and will continue to be responsible for lessening the time of hospitalization."

Miss Bartol described the work of the Nurse's Aide in local Federal and civilian hospitals as that of helping trained nurses with the physical care of a patient. "Women who volunteer for this work will have the thanks of 16 local hospitals", she said.

Arlington women registering for the class starting October 18th will receive an intensive training course which not only teaches them theoretical hospital practices but provides them with 45 hours of work on the wards of a local hospital before their capping ceremonies.

Day volunteers are particularly urgently needed, according to Miss Bartol who is urging the enrollment of an additional 150 day volunteers as well as 18 and 55 and be able to give four hours a week in this service.

Local residents interested in this important work should arrange now for an appointment with Miss Dorothy Bartol, chairman of the Nurse's Aide service, by calling the Boston Red Cross at KENmore 6-6226 or visiting the Chapter House, 17 Gloucester Street.

Autumn In New England

It seemed like old times Sunday. All roads leading into the country were crowded almost bumper-to-bumper with all kinds of vehicles, occupants intent upon enjoying the brilliant October sunshine, the glorious autumn hills, the white farms along the way, the yellow pumpkins, red apples, celery, and delectable farm products of all kinds arrayed in tempting display at the roadside stands and farms.

The brilliance of the autumn flowers, goldenrod and asters in the fields, added to the beauty of the New England scene, while everywhere swamp maples in rosy array, the oaks in their brown and gold dress, and the sumach across the pasture lands vied with the rosy red of the MacIntosh.

Yet we couldn't help ponder in the tight formation of this two-way Sunday traffic, the hazards of bumper-to-bumper driving, especially noticeable at fast speeds on heavily travelled through-ways. It's getting to be a common practice, and a dangerous one, to travel at a good clip close behind the car in front. Sudden stops make for rear end collisions. Thus a pile up of cars, with danger to life and limb.

There're over forty-one million cars on the highways across the nation, these fall holidays, and that's a lot of cars. There'll be side-swipes, tire blow outs, rear end collisions, soft shoulder passing flats and skids, with dire results.

Yes, let's enjoy the New England scene in its autumn beauty, but let's be CAREFUL.

The Hardy P. T. A. recently entertained a large group of mothers of the kindergarten pupils at an afternoon tea at the school. Mrs. Milton Bretscher President of the Association, welcomed the mothers and explained briefly the objectives of the organization and extended an invitation to all to become active members. She introduced Miss Katherine Gregory, supervisor of elementary schools, who explained the readiness program and testing system for admission to school. Miss Gregory answered many questions asked by mothers.

Tea was served at an attractively decorated table. Mrs. William Connell and Mrs. Richard White poured. Mrs. George McManis was hostess, assisted by the members of the P. T. A. board. Mrs. Douglas Mace and Mrs. Nicholas Quinzio who cared for the children while the mothers attended the tea.

"Yes, My Darling Daughter" Brings Out Large Audience

A large and enthusiastic audience attended the presentation of the delightful comedy in three acts, "Yes My Darling Daughter," at Robbins Memorial town hall, on Wednesday of last week.

The entire membership of the John Brenner Players, a wellknown summer stock group, donated their services to put on this play, which presentation was sponsored by the Arlington Knights of Columbus. All proceeds from the benefit performance were allocated to the Monica Benefit Fund.

One of the highlights of the performance, was the appearance of the famous Bombo dog, "Emir," the only dog in the entire world, it is said, able to read one's mind. This dog has appeared before thousands of interested spectators at the Brockton Fair, and has been featured on the show "We, The People."

He answers any question in any language, by anyone on mathematics, history or science. The owner of the dog, Mr. John Sanjean, of Medford, who donated the services of the wonder dog on this occasion, states that absolutely no signals, signs or ventriloquism are used.

Much of the credit for the success of the performance was due to the large and capable committee of the Knights, under the chairmanship of Phil O'Neill, members of which were actively engaged in tickets distribution, selling advertisement for the program, and making all arrangements for a most successful performance. Among the members were Francis Diddy, John Reardon, Thomas Pryor, Bernard Hutchinson, Joseph Mulhurn, Philip Ahearn, Robert Grannon, Allan Igoe, Jack Moriarty, Frank Healy, rank McDonald, Harry O'Reilly, Anthony Spina, George Harris, John Bryne, Jr., Jerome O'Neill, Frank Higgins, and many others.

Arlington Man Denies Guilt In Bank Case

A plea of not guilty to an indictment charging bank embezzlement in the amount of $13,000, was voiced in Federal Court on Tuesday September 21, by Harry C. Fallis, Jr., of this town, the former teller of the Somerville branch of the Middlesex County National Bank, arraigned before Judge George C. Sweeney. Fallis was represented by Attorney Charles W. Bartlett. The case will come up for trial during the December term. Fallis was arrested last spring after a shortage was discovered in the accounts.

Red Cross Needs More Gray Ladies

Seventeen local hospitals are urgently requesting an additional 200 Red Cross Gray Ladies, according to Mrs. Kenneth Bolles, Boston Gray Lady chairman who announced the start of two new courses training volunteers.

Arlington women interested in teaching simple crafts such as weaving and hooking rugs were urged by Mrs. Bolles to register for the day "craft" Gray Lady course starting October 4th. Forty-four women will be trained as instructors in these crafts and will teach at West Roxbury Veterans, Chelsea Naval, Boston Psychopathic and Boston City Hospitals.

Both day and evening courses for regular Gray Ladies who assist in the non-nursing duties at local hospitals will be started shortly after that date. "Women who register in this service will find the work an interesting part of their fall and winter program", Mrs. Bolles said.

Registrations for these courses are being taken now by the Volunteer Services of the Boston Red Cross at 17 Gloucester Street, Boston and at Kenmore 6-6226.

Adj. Morrissey Thanks Press

The Arlington Press; Gentlemen; Enclosed is a check for the Monica fund from the Arlington Disabled American Veterans. Due to the fact that we held no meetings during the summer months, we are a little late in sending it along. It is not a large check, but is intended only as a gift from the chapter itself, since practically all of our members contributed individually to the fund when it was first inaugurated.

We would also like to take this opportunity to express our heartiest commendation of your unstinting efforts in behalf of little Monica Cotter. You have done a great service for a most deserving cause.

Yours in comradeship

Big Jewelry Theft In Arlington Ctr.

Yessir, that's what 'twas, practically a jewelry theft—well not a real one—It's just the Town Topic again. This time they bought a one of a kind samples at a price so low that the boys in the market consider it a "steal".

Yup—this summer Albert of the Town Topic (that's the famous Stationery Store next to the Regent Theatre) dispatched his best Buyer (his charming wife Phyllis) to New York to buy jewelry, toys, gifts, etc. — all as part of their "Deflationary Program" (That's T' opposite of inflationary Maizy). Phyl came back with a few extra New York dresses, a suntan and a load of nationally advertised manufacturers' samples purchased so right that we can pass on the savings to you—59¢ for pieces valued at dollars—many one of a kind (Earring racks Free with dollar pieces). DEALERS PLEASE NOTE:-We'll drop ship in gross lots-20% off-you can mark up to 100% for a 50 percent net.

Phyl told the boss (sure that's her husband Albert) that metal and mechanical toys will be scarce again this year—that's right hot from N. Y. manufacturers—we've got friends! So again she bought—(my bank roll gets lower!). Now we got 'em—mechanical and electrical trains—Toys galore from N. Y. Chicago and California manufacturers—but lay-em away now or go begging Dec. 1st.

Incidentally, where else can you find a store with 31 varieties of boxed Xmas Cards, imported Florentine Madonna Cards exclusive with us—in short greeting cards you don't find elsewhere.

Zarek please note and give by line credit to ALBERT of THE TOWN TOPIC Arlington Centre.

Scout Leaders Outline Fall Plans At Two Day Conference

Many local Scout Leaders were among the more than eight hundred Scout officials from the forty-nine New England councils, who attended the twenty-seventh annual meeting of Region One, Boy Scouts of America, composed of the six New England states, held at the New Ocean House, Swampscott, on Saturday last, it was announced by Alex W. Mokatz, conference chairman.

The two-day conference, geared to the theme, "Make Scouting Work," officially opened on Friday evening, with a dinner meeting of more than one hundred Council residents, and their guests, with Regional Chairman, Robert S. Ludd, of New Haven, in the chair. Highlighting the residents' dinner was a reception and welcome extended to the newly appointed Chief Scout executive of the nation, Arthur A. Schuck, who assumed office on September 1.

Of special interest on Saturday morning, following the registration, was the "Information Posts," which operated under the leadership of the following Scout leaders:

- Boats—George E. Chronic, New York.
- Church Awards—Kenneth E. Cook.
- Camping—Daniel R. Pinkham, Lynn.
- Canoeing—Stafford Rogers, Winchester.
- Skiing—Theodore L. Storer, Cambridge.
- Pow-Wows—Gerald L. Speedy, New York.
- Recruiting—Harry G. Nagel, New York.
- Publications—A. E. Lowmes, Providence.

The morning business meeting and election of officers was conducted by Dudley H. Dorr, of Lancaster. A review of the activities of the year was made by Regional Chairman, Robert S. Judd, and included the presentation of the following:

- Stone Wilderness—A. E. Lowmes, Providence.
- Senior Scout Report—Alex W. Moffat, Boston.
- Membership in New England—John M. Bierer, Waban.
- And presentation of the Stone Membership trophy to representatives of the Katahdin Area Council, Brewer, Maine, which achieved the greatest boy membership growth during 1947.
- Salary Study Report—Wm. H. Eckert, Watertown.
- Sea Scout Regatta awards—Com E. Seymour Clark, Sandwich.
- Francis W. Hatch, Boston, is chairman of the nominating committee, composed of Oscar E. Koehler, Greenfield; Palmer A. Niles, New London, Conn.; Lawrence L. Jones, Beverly; and J. Watson Beach, Hartford.

The luncheon program was under the leadership of Karl A. Reiche, of Bristol, Conn., a member of the regional committee, and featured a welcome to Milo C. Clark, recently elected regional scout executive, to take the place of Don W. Moyer, who was promoted to the leadership of Region Twelve, which comprises the states of California, Utah, Arizona, Nevada and the Hawaiian Islands.

The guest speaker was Abel A. Gitz M. O., of Carl E. Palmen, As. sociates, Cleveland, who presented a number of vital recommendations for the success of New England scouting.

During the afternoon, seven group meetings devoted to presentations and discussion of the important Scouting subject took up the attention of the delegates. The topic included the following, with their chairmen and advisors:

- Cubbers PowWows—George C. Patton, Jr., Winchester and Gerald Speedy, New York.
- Better District Organization—R. Franklin Alford, Hartford and Harry Nagel, New York.
- Better Camp Attendance—K. K. Paluev, Pittsfield and Wm. A. Collins, Taunton.
- More Council Activities—Wilfred S. Budlong, Providence, and H. Cushman, Anthony Providence.
- More New Unit Organizations—Richard C. Browne, So. Braintree and Kenneth Cook, New York.
- More Senior Scouting—Palmer A. Niles, New London and George E. Chronic, New York.
- Annual Unit Review—Lincoln Drake, Lynn, and Charles Little.
- Mrs. Robert S. Judd and Mrs. Milo G. Clark were hostesses to the ladies of the conference, who enjoyed a special tea and social hour during the late afternoon, following the Group meeting.
- The highlight of the two day session was the banquet, which came at the close of the meeting, and was under the direction of the conference chairman, Mr. Moffat. A feature of the occasion was a most enjoyable address by Arthur A. Schuck, chief Scout executive, which was followed by the awarding of the Silver Antelope to five outstanding New England Scouters for "distinguished service to boyhood within the region." Heading the committee for this presentation was William V.M. Fawcett, chairman, who ably assisted by Alex W. Moffat, George D. Bearce, Leon S. Gay. This was the fifth year this coveted award has been presented.

The presentation brought to a close one of the most enlightening and interesting get-together Scout Leader conventions ever held, and serves as a valuable impetus to the coming fall and winter activities lined up for the Boy Scouts in this area.

Rejoicing in Arlington this week were Mrs. Adeline Vilas, and her son, Paul, aged 11, who came all the way from Canadagua New York, to witness some baseball.

Through the courtesy of a Boston newspaper, the couple were able to obtain tickets for Monday's game, between the Red Sox and the Indians, for the championship of the American League.

Visiting at the home of a relative, Clarence Vigar, at 31 Marston street, with his mother chubby Paul, is rejoicing over a dream fulfilled—the witnessing of a major league baseball game, through the efforts of a devoted mother, and the kindness of a Boston editor.
